Water Music: A Hymn Festival for the River City

St. Mark's Lutheran Church – 3976 Hendricks Ave.
Sunday, September 28, 2008
7:00 p.m.

The event is free and open to the public.

Archaeological evidence indicates that Florida's springs have been a source of life for thousands of years.

“O God, our help in ages past, our hope for years to come, our shelter from the stormy blast, and our eternal home!” – Considered to be one of the greatest in hymnody, this is a paraphrase of Palm 90: “Before the mountains were brought forth, or ever Thou had formed the earth and the world, even from everlasting, to everlasting, Thou art God. “

This hymn once had 9 stanzas! It was part of The Psalms of David, published by Isaac Watts in 1719. Watts, often called the father of English hymnody, wrote more than 600 hymns.

The tune, “St. Anne,” had been composed in 1708 by William Croft, an Oxford musician. This majestic hymn tune has been borrowed by great Masters such as Handel and Bach to create their own powerful interpretations.

Join us in singing hymns of praise that celebrate the water of eternal life, with organ works performed by members of the Jacksonville AGO.

*“Come thou fount of every blessing; tune my heart to sing thy praise.
Streams of mercy, never ceasing, call for songs of loudest praise.”*

Be a part of the US premiere of Requiem by Jean Catoire. This work for 4 part treble chorus with vocal and organ soli is based on Medieval themes and harmonies with shimmering 20th century accents. Auditions for singers begin at 7:30 on Thursday, September 11 and 18, 2008 at Saint Mark's Lutheran Church, 3976 Hendricks Avenue, or by arrangement. Weekly rehearsals are also on Thursdays as Saint Mark's. The performances by First Coast Chorale will be early in Lent. The Accompanist position is paid, choral members and soloists are volunteer. For further information please contact                  Dr. Claire R. Scott, Director at 904.535.4779, shifra616@aol.com.
Interim Organist                  Westminster Presbyterian Church • www.wpcjax.org                  3722 Belfort Road, Jacksonville, FL 32216 • Phone 904-737-5133 Our organist of 16 years has recently departed our congregation because of family responsibilities. We are in need of an interim organist, a position that might be extended. We have two Sunday services: morning worship at 10:45, which is in a traditional style with a two-manual organ, and evening worship at 6:00 with piano. At this time we have several talented young women who are willing to play the piano for the evening service, if necessary. We have no choir at this time, and very seldom do any special music, but have several interested congregation members. In addition, there are several in the congregation who are studying violin. We hope eventually to include more strings in the worship services, given that someone can arrange. We are a conservative congregation with a formal worship style and hope to continue our tradition of strong hymn singing. We use the Trinity Hymnal of the Presbyterian Church of America, and several have studied the musical style of the Reformed University Ministries. We have a great appreciation for the Reformed Faith of historic Presbyterianism. Our worship is God-centered, rich in Scripture content, and not entertainment oriented. We practice the regulative principle of worship, desiring to include only that which God's Word commands. A growing relationship with Christ Jesus is essential to participate in the worship. It is joyous and soul-satisfying. Salary is negotiable, commensurate with experience. Please reply to Steve Jennings at email jsjmjenn@yahoo.com.
