Easter-tide Choir Festival Invitation

Dear Friends and Colleagues,

We are planning an Easter-tide Choral Festival for Sunday, April 26 at 7:00 PM. It will be held at Saint Matthew's Catholic Church, 1773 Blanding Blvd. Our thanks to David Emery for hosting this event.

The last choir Festival was in 2007 at St. Matthew's Lutheran Church and was a great success. It is a rare treat for us to hear our choirs and inspiring for them to share their talents with other church choirs.

Each choir is asked to present one anthem. Please submit a first and second choice in case there are duplications. It may be possible to sing both anthems, depending on the number of choirs participating.

Two anthems have been chosen for all choirs to sing together:

With a Voice of Singing – Martin Shaw

Hallelujah Chorus – Handel

We will rehearse at 5:30 PM on Sunday afternoon just before the service. Choirs will wear their robes.

I realize that this is a long way off and we are all focused on Lenten and Easter preparations right now. Please discuss this with your choirs and let me know if you will be able to participate.

St. Matthew's Catholic Church

Saturday, April 18, 7:30 pm, in Worsham Hall
Sunday, April 19, 6 pm, in Worsham Hall

Chamber Music Society presents

Mozart's Così fan tutte

by the Jacksonville University Opera Theater
Bobb Robinson, stage director • Bonita Wyke, music director

Join the JU Opera Theatre as they perform Wolfgang Amadeus Mozart's beloved comic opera Così fan tutte in English with a decidedly American twist!

Randy and Goose, big shots in 1962 Springfield, Ohio, believe their fiancées Florrie and Dee Dee to be the very paragons of virtue. But can the girls be swayed by the handsome, exotic new strangers in town? They can if local pizza parlor owner "Don Alfonso" has anything to say about it! Don't miss this timeless tale of misdirection, mistaken identity, and the discovery of true love presented in the ideal setting of Good Shepherd's chamber opera theater.
